

Voice Lessons

Studio of Clara Salomon

cell: 650.269.1059

www.ClaraSalomon.com

Voice (Opera & Music Theater), Communication & Public Speaking, Personal Growth & Healing

Beautiful Singing is for Everyone!

Just back from years of performance in Europe, Clara has taught voice lessons, opera and audition workshops, public speaking, and worked as a vocal director for operas and musicals at such institutions as Stanford and San Jose State Universities, the San Jose Children's Music theater Company, and the Wall Street Institute in Germany.

A clear, bright, open, expressive, and strong voice is a natural part of our human inheritance. One's voice is all but inseparable from the person as a whole. The voice is a mirror of one's condition of being, at once physical, mental, and spiritual. Translated from speech to singing, especially "lyric" or operatic singing, this mirror greatly magnifies our inconsistencies, tensions, and imbalances. But it also reflects our creativity, vibrancy, spirit, and joy!

I work with students ranging from professionals and music students in high school, university, and graduate schools, to adults who would like to explore their talent or vocal self expression for the first time. On occasion I also work with young children, helping them to acquire skills and preserve their health of their voice until they are ready for heavier training.

Where: Studios in Tucson and Patagonia

Time: 45 minute -1.5 hour lessons, depending on your level and goals.

Telephone: 650.269.1059

Email: claratango@gmail.com

Website: www.ClaraSalomon.com

Basic Credentials: BA in Music - Rice University, Master's in Music (full scholarship and stipend) - University of Utah, MA in Italian - Stanford University (scholarships/grants for voice study, performance in Italy, and teaching), Feldenkrais mat training for posture, focus, body awareness.